###

In the references (4) to (7) cited, it is informed that, the Government in memo 1st cited, clarified that where an in-service employee who was covered under the earlier Pension Rules joins another organization/department where the same rules were applicable, after submitting a technical resignation, such employees will be treated outside the purview of the New Contributory Pension Scheme. In other words, they would continue to remain under the earlier Pension Rules. In those cases, where past service was not covered under the earlier Pension Rules and or such services are not counted for pensionary other recruitment benefit, the concerned employees may be treated to be covered under the New Pension Scheme.

In view of the above Government clarification, all the Principals under the control of this Department has already instructed vide reference (2) & (3) cited (copies enclosed), to take action accordingly to apply AP. Revised Pension Rules 1980, New Contributory Pension Scheme introduced w.e.f. 01-09-2004 as the case may be, GPF, APGLI, Employee ID and counting the past services in respect of Lecturers who earlier worked in other Departments, where the above Pension Schemes are applicable and subsequently on selection by APPSC joined this Department.

In this connection, the Principals of all Govt. Polytechnics are instructed to follow the clarification/instructions issued in the references (1) to (3) accordingly.

The receipt of the Memo shall be acknowledged.
