The Institution

The thirty three year old polytechnic was established on November 13, 1981 at Gudlavalleru in the prospective Krishna District of Andhra Pradesh. The Institution was Sponsored by AANM & VVRSR Educational Society and offering seven Engineering Diploma Courses, DAEIE,DCE,DCME,DECE, DEEE,DIT and DME with intake of 1320 the highest in AP. The polytechnic has been in the first row of academic success with the achievement of State Ranks every year. Besides, the students of the polytechnic have been successfully taking part in the National Level Paper Presentations being annually organized by IE(I), ISTE and other reputed institutions at various fora

The Founders

Sri Adsumilli Aswardha Narayana Murthy and Sri Vallurupalli Venkata Rama Seshadri Rao were the two Chief patrons as well as the Founder President and the Founder Secretary respectively.

The Festival

The Sponsoring Society intended to Start the Interpolytechnic student Festival with three National Level technical events GLORY-2K15, NIPS-2K15 and CLAP-2K15. The Festival is celebrated in memory of the Key-founder Sri Adsumilli Aswardha Narayana Murthy. He was born on 26th November, 1906 and had been a prominent contributor to the integrated development of Gudlavalleru, the National Best Gram Panchayath awardee in 1972 under his presidentship. After more than 50 Years of Service to the Village, Sri Murthy became the harbinger of technical education to the rural place of Gudlavalleru. At the age of 82, Sri Adsumilli Aswardha Narayana Murthy breathed his last on 11-02-1988. In Commemoration of his valuable services to the polytechnic, the AANM & VVRSR PolyFest is being celebrated as an event once in three years.

Location

Gudlavalleru is located on Gudurvada - Machilipatnam highway and is well connected by Road and Rail to Gudurvada (10kms), Machilipatnam (26 kms) and Vijayawada(55 kms). For any clarification regarding route please contact Sri M.N.V.Krishna Prasad.7732021426
